

The civil conflict in the Philippines is a series of insurgencies launched by Maoist rebels, Moro rebels, and Islamists against Government forces that began in 1969 during the presidency of Ferdinand Marcos.

NPA rebellion

ISIL insurgency

Moro conflict (until 22 February 2019)

Clashes between communists and the national government

August 2022 Samar boat explosion

April 2026 Toboso encounter

List of conflicts between the military, MNLF, and MILF

February 1974 Battle of Jolo

October 1977 Patikul massacre

February 1981 Pata Island massacre

February 2000 Operation Valiancy

March 2000 Operation Audacity & subsequent 2000 Philippine campaign

July 2000 Battle of Camp Abubakar

November 2001 2001 Misuari rebellion

February 2003 Battle of the Buliok Complex

July 2007 Basilan beheading incident

August 2008 North Cotabato conflict

October 2011 Al-Barka clash

September 2013 Zamboanga siege

November 2022 Ungkaya Pukan Clash

List of conflicts between the military and Jihadist groups

June 2001 Siege of Lamitan

January 2002 Operation Freedom Eagle

January 2014 Operation Darkhorse

April 2014 Battle of Basilan

July 2014 Islamic State Insurgency

January 2015 Mamasapano clash

February 2016 Butig clash

April 2016 Battle of Tipo-Tipo

Summer 2016 Sulu and Basilan Clashes

November 2016 Butig clash

January 2017 Kidapawan jail siege

May 2017 Bohol clashes

May 2017 Battle of Marawi

April 2020 Battle of Danag

May 2021 Datu Paglas Market Occupation

2023 Dawlah Islamiyah Insurgency

Casualties by year

Extreme Islamists versus the government

Note: Some casualties from small-scale conflicts are not given.

== References ==