

Deepali Pant Joshi is a former executive director of the Reserve Bank of India (retired in 2017). She is a development economist and a writer on economic subjects. Her professional responsibilities have included the Department of Currency Management Archived 6 February 2015 at the Wayback Machine, Legal Department and Premises Department. She was the First Appellate authority under the Right to Information Act, as well as the RBI nominee on the governing council of the Institute of Banking Personnel Selection (IBPS) and director on the board of Bharatiya Reserve Bank Note Mudran Private Limited (BRBNMPL).

Joshi has also served as the RBI regional director of Rajasthan. Prior to her appointment as executive director, Joshi was responsible for Customer Service Department and Rural Planning and Credit Department.

Early life

Deepali Pant Joshi studied at St. Mary's Convent Inter College, Prayagraj and at the University of Allahabad. Her father, Mr Jagdish Mohan Pant was an Advocate at the Allahabad High Court and later Administrator General and Official Trustee for the state of Uttar Pradesh. Her mother Professor Chandra Pant taught history at the University of Allahabad.

Personal life

Joshi is an only child. She is married to Rajeev Joshi. They have two sons, Paritosh and Kunal.

Career

Joshi is a fellow of Harvard University Asia Centre where she did post doctoral research in the areas of Finance and Economics. She holds a doctoral degree from the University of Allahabad and Law and Management degrees. She joined the Reserve Bank of India as a direct recruit in 1981 and has been with the Reserve Bank since. She has held several important professional responsibilities as Chief General Manager in charge of Urban Banks and Currency

Management and administrative responsibilities at RBI Hyderabad. She was the Banking Ombudsman for the State of Andhra Pradesh and Principal, Bankers Training College and Director on the Board of Andhra Bank. Her previous professional responsibility was Chief General Manager in Charge of Rural Planning and Credit Department. She is a prolific writer and has four significant books to her credit. She renders faculty support to the College of Agricultural Banking and has lectured extensively at the IAS Academy at Mussoorie, at the Administrative Staff College, Hyderabad and at several Indian and foreign Universities. She has represented the RBI in several important International Conferences and is the India representative on the Financial Inclusion Expert Group of the G-20. Her policy interests lie in the area of welfare and development economics, law and currency management Archived 6 February 2015 at the Wayback Machine.

Speeches

Closing Remarks

Presentation on Financial Inclusion and Financial Literacy

Indian Financial Markets: Fuelling the Growth of the Indian Economy

Indian Rural Banking Sector

Reserve Bank of India at National Seminar on Consumer Protection – Agenda for Inclusive Growth

Conference of Principal Code Compliance Officers (PCCOs) / Chairmen of Regional Rural Banks organised by BCSBI at Mumbai

Enabling Urban Microfinance-Keynote Address by Dr Deepali Pant Joshi, Executive Director, Reserve Bank of India at the Conference on The Challenges of Enabling Urban Finance organised by Minorities Development Department, Government of Maharashtra and MAVIM the State Womens'

Speech on Financial Inclusion

Financial Education and Customer Protection

Financial Education Key to Promoting Financial Inclusion and Customer Protection

Financial Inclusion - Journey so far and Road Ahead

NISM Conference on Ethics and Corporate Governance-Speech

Moving Financial Capability Forward: Innovation Scale and Impact

Financial Inclusion - The Indian Model – Challenges & Prospects-Presentation at Center for international Development- Harvard Kennedy School, Cambridge

Strategy adopted for Financial Inclusion

Fortifying cooperatives - efforts to strengthen the short term cooperative credit structure

Bibliography

Social Banking Promise Performance and Potential

Employment and Poverty Alleviation Programs in India in K. K. Bagchi

The Financial Inclusion Imperative, Cambridge Books, Cambridge University Press and a host of research articles published in journals both in India and abroad.

References

External links

Article in yojana

The Mint

The Femina Archived 4 March 2016 at the Wayback Machine

Book review-Ten Judgements That Changed India (Zia Mody)

"Most widely held works by Dīpālī Panta Jośī". WorldCat.