

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines competed at the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris from 26 July to 11 August 2024. It was the nation's tenth consecutive appearance at the Summer Olympics, since the nation's official debut at the 1988.

Competitors

The following is the list of number of competitors in the Games.

Athletics

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines track and field athletes qualified for Paris 2024, either by passing the direct qualifying mark (or time for track and road races), by world ranking, or universality places; in the following events (a maximum of 3 athletes each):

Track & road events

Maloney competed in the Women's 800m Final with a time of 1:57:66, falling just behind Kenya's Mary Moraa, Tsige Duguma from Ethiopia, and Keely Hodgkinson from Great Britain. This was the closest a Vincentian had come to winning a medal at the 2024 Summer Olympics.

Swimming

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines sent two swimmers to compete at the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Qualifiers for the latter rounds (Q) of all events were decided on a time only basis, therefore positions shown are overall results versus competitors in all heats.

See also

Saint Vincent and the Grenadines at the 2023 Pan American Games

== References ==