

Scheduled Banks in India refer to those banks which have been included in the Second Schedule of Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934. Reserve Bank of India (RBI) in turn includes only those banks in this Schedule which satisfy all the criteria laid down via section 42(6)(a) of the said Act.

Banks not under this Schedule are called Non-Scheduled Banks.

Facilities

Every scheduled bank enjoys two types of principal facilities: it becomes eligible for debts/loans at the bank rate from the RBI; and, it automatically acquires the membership of clearing house.

Types of banks

There are two main categories of Scheduled Banks in India, namely:

Scheduled Commercial Banks

Scheduled Co-operative Banks

Scheduled Commercial Banks are further divided into six types, as below:

Scheduled Public Sector Banks

Scheduled Private Sector Banks
