

The Centre for Tax Policy and Administration is part of the Secretariat of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development in France. Manal Corwin serves as the director of the Centre.

Activities

Among its initiative have been:

Guidance on Fiscal federalism

Base erosion and profit shifting (OECD project)

Greater Exchange of information between tax authorities

The Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters

Criticism of transparency of tax havens such as Monaco and Panama

The Centre released the report Harmful Tax Competition: An Emerging Global Issue.

References

External links

Official website

Tax Consultant