

UNESCO's City of Media Arts project is part of the wider Creative Cities Network. The Network launched in 2004, and has member cities in seven creative fields. The other fields are: Crafts and Folk Art, Music, Film, Gastronomy, Literature, Media Arts and Design Cities.

The current designated Cities of Media Arts of UNESCO are:

See also

Creative Cities Network

City of Film

City of Gastronomy

City of Literature

City of Crafts and Folk Arts

City of Music (UNESCO)

Design Cities (UNESCO)

== References ==