

The Programmes and stakeholders relations Directorate or PSR, located in Brussels, Belgium and Ispra, Italy, is part of the Joint Research Centre (European Commission), a Directorate-General of the European Commission (EC).

The Programmes and stakeholders relations Directorate supports the JRC in the development and implementation of its relationships that will ensure the long-term success in the fulfilment of JRC mission and maximise its contribution to the objectives of the European Research Area (ERA).

PSR Units

Work Programme

Intellectual property and scientific co-operation

Customer and stakeholder relations

Internal and external communications (Brussels/Ispra)

Management support

Work programme EURATOM

Corporate Development

Joint Research Centre Institutes

Institute for Transuranium Elements (ITU)

Institute for the Protection and the Security of the Citizen (IPSC)

Institute for Environment and Sustainability (IES)

Institute for Health and Consumer Protection (IHCP)

Institute for Energy (IE)

Institute for Prospective Technological Studies (IPTS)

See also

Directorate-General for Research (European Commission)

External links

Institutional and Scientific Relations (ISR)